FILIPINOS RUN

Tino's Army Demolished, Part Escaping With American Prisoners.

AGUINALDO STILL FLEEING

Conception Surrendered, Many Spauldards Being Liberated
By Our Soldiers.

MANY GUERRILLAS FOR EXAMPLE

MANILA, Dec. 13.—Colonel Howe, of the Thirty-fourth infantry, with force demolished General Tino's army, which was the most formidable force of rebels left in Northern Luzon. Howe killed fifty of the enemy and wounded a large number and took a hundred prisoners, including several officers. The remainder of Tino's army is fleeing north, taking with them the American prisoners.

Major March, with a battalion of the Thirty-third infantry, is operating further south. He received the surrender of Conception, in the Province of Lepanto. March liberated 577 Spauldards, including one hundred and fifty French.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—General Otis cables: "Admiral Watson informs me the Province of Cagayan has been surrendered unconditionally to Captain McCalla, of the cruiser Newark. This surrender doubtless includes Province of Isabela, General Bates, at Zamboanga, reports affairs satisfactory, and nearly all cities surrendered. General MacArthur, at Bayambang, says he holds as a prisoner of war Mahini, the chief of the insurgents, and founder of the late government."

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Dec. 13.—The battleship Texas sailed this morning for Havana, where she will arrive Friday or Saturday, to take aboard the bodies of the Maine and buried in Cristobal Colon cemetery. The ship will return the middle of next week. The bodies will be forwarded to Washington by rail.

MANILA, Dec. 13.—General Young reports the rescue of Brune, of the Nevada regiment, and Edwards, of the gunboat Yorktown, who have been held prisoners by the Filipinos. Aguinaldo is a fugitive in the mountains, his body guard having been destroyed.

Two thousand eight hundred released Spanish prisoners are coming to Manila.

Colonel Smith, with a detachment of the Seventeenth infantry, surrounded and captured in a village near Malasqui a party of guerrillas. The party included the band which assassinated seven officials at Malasqui for friendliness to the Americans.

They kept the country around Malasqui in a state of terror for several weeks and committed 25 murders in less than that number of days.

REPUBLICAN RATIFICATION.

Many Were Out Last Night to Hear the Speeches.

There was a well attended rally of the Republicans of Paducah at the city hall last night, and several good speeches were made.

One of the most prominent speakers for the occasion was Secretary of State James A. Rose, of Springfield, Ill. Captain Ed Farley, Colonel Ed Lucas, Colonel John J. Dorian and others all made good talks.

THOUSANDS KILLED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—A horror is reported from Japanese island of Camran. An earthquake was followed by tidal wave. The island was badly wrecked along shores. Over 5000 people lost their lives. Towns were swept away.

RILEY POWELL'S CASE.

to Will Stay in Jail Charged With Murder Until February.

Riley Powell, colored, murderer of City Marshal Elmo Frie, of Charles ton, Mo., will not be tried at the present term of Circuit court at Cairo. The awful fate of William Martin was too much for him, and he secured a continuance until next February.

Mr. Towney, his attorney, moved for a continuance and presented an affidavit setting forth that Robert Mitchell, an important witness for the defense, was not in attendance, and that his presence was needed at the trial. The court granted the continuance and set the trial for the first day of the February term.

WERE NOT PAID

Ten $1,000 Bonds Presented to Treasurer Richardson.

They Were Refused Payment By

the Treasurer—Were Funded.

Attorney Sam Houston yesterday presented to City Treasurer J. E. Richardson at the City National bank ten bonds of the New Orleans and Ohio railroad issue, of $1,000 each, which were refused payment by the treasurer.

These bonds are the same found in the effects of the late E. W. Greif, and were funded years ago. They were issued about 1867 and were short term bonds. They were refused and it is thought he intended to destroy them, but he probably forgot it.

The mayor and finance committee of the council have a copy examined into the records, and have ascertained that the bonds were funded years ago, if the records are to be relied upon. The city will not pay them, and feels confident that the bonds will be dropped.

ELLIS GLENN

Will Go to West Virginia For Trial.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 13.—Gov. Tanner has honored the request papers presented by officers from West Virginia for the return of Ellis Glenn, the female alleged forger, confined in the Montgomery county jail at Hillsboro, and she will be taken back to that state to answer charges of a similar nature. The authorities at Hillsboro decided not to prosecute on the charges that held Glenn in confinement there.

CORLEY INDICTED.

His Offense Reduced to an Assault

By the Grand Jury.

The grand jury will probably report a batch of indictments this afternoon for minor offenses.

Tom Corley, the man who attempted to kill his wife Sunday night, was indicted for an assault, making it a misdemeanor instead of a felony.

George Dennis will probably be indicted for robbery, but John Honihan, who was held over with him this morning, will be released, having had nothing to do with the alleged robbery.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Warner Edmunds and Sallie Hobbs, colored, aged 32 and 21, were licensed to marry today.

William Hughes and Belle Tenney, colored, aged 54 and 40, respectively, were licensed to marry this afternoon.

WOODS AND ALLEN NAMED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—General Wood was today appointed military governor of Cuba, to relieve General Brooke.

OMAHA, Dec. 13.—Gov. Poynter to day appointed ex-Senator John to

ROBERTS CASE UP.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The

Roberts investigating committee been taking testimony today. The committee overruled Roberts' declaration to jurisdiction of the committee. C. M. Owen, of Salt Lake, the first witness, testified Roberts had more than one wife.

Boers and are Routed By Terrific Fire.

METHUEN SUFFERS AGAIN

His Official Reports Admits of

No Rout But Reports

Heavy Loss.

STRONG FORCE OF BOERS AHEAD

MODDER RIVER CAMP, Dec. 13.—

Following Saturday's bombardment of the Boer's position by the naval contingent the artillery reopened fire yesterday morning on the Boer trenches around Magersfontein kopje, apparently silencing the enemy. The British infantry then advanced but the Boers remained in their trenches and when the British approached they poured in a terrific rifle fire, repeating the British with heavy losses. The Highland brigade suffered especially.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—An official report from General Methuen tells of a severe repulse of the British north of Modder river yesterday.

PRETORIA, Dec. 13.—In the battle with General Methuen's forces at Modder river yesterday the Boers captured 41 prisoners.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The following is General Methuen's official report of yesterday's battle:

"Sunday I shielded a strong position of the enemy on Longheugh kopje from 4 in the afternoon until dusk.

Monday at daybreak the highlanders attacked the south end of the kopje. The attack was properly timed but it failed. The Gordons proceeded the Highlanders on the right and rear, while cavalry and mounted infantry, with Howitzer battery attacked the enemy's left, while artillery shelled the position from daybreak, and at 1:15 sent the Ger-sons to support the Highlanders.

My troops held their own till dark,

my position extending six miles toward Modder river. This Tuesday morning I am still holding my position and entrenching myself.

Had to face at least twelve thousand of the enemy. Our loss is great."

FRERE, Dec. 13.—Yesterday General Birtens brigade advanced and took a position, unopposed, within three miles of Colenso.

CAPE TOWN, Dec. 13.—The Boer loss at Stormberg Sunday was four hundred and nine wounded. This is explained by the fact the British made no concerted attack, the men rushing to the hills without orders, though exhausted and incapable of fighting. The Boers may occupy

Modder.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The Central

News dispatch says Schreiner, ministry at Cape, gave passes to the Free State pupils attending the colonial colleges who wanted to go home to fight. As result Governor Milner is considering the dismissal of Schreiner and his colleagues.

CAPE TOWN, Dec. 13.—General

Methuen reports to General Walker that Major General Andrew C. Wauschupe was killed in Monday's fight north of Modder river.

ORANGE RIVER, Cape Colony, Dec.

13.—Three hundred and twenty wounded from Modder river have arrived here.

BREAKERS AHEAD.

Opponents to Goebel and His Law

Among Legislators.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 13.—In Pepublican circles it is expected that some Democratic legislators are already known who oppose electing

Goebel in case of a contest, and say they will not participate in the caucus or be bound by caucus action in this matter. There is a good chance that the Goebel election law will be repealed. Secretary of State Finney says he has a straight tip that its repeal will be decided on by the em-eratic caucus.

LAWRENCE CASE ON TRIAL.

The case against Frank Lawrence charged with receiving stolen goods taken from E. B. Harbour's, as begun yesterday afternoon in the circuit court and is still on trial. The probabilities are that the case will not be decided until tomorrow.

The jury in the case against Willie Elthorpe, for malicious cutting returned a verdict of not guilty yesterday afternoon. The cutting resulted from a school boy's quarrel, and the case had been on the docket for about two years.

The grand jury returned several indictments yesterday afternoon, but there were none of them of interest, all being for minor offenses.

Another indictment has been returned against John Dove charged with cow stealing.

Three cases were continued against

Mrs. Welsh, charged with keeping a disorderly house.

CUTTING AT BROOKLYN.

Horace Lander Cut Jess Hamilton

There Last Night.

A cutting affray occurred last night at Brooklyn between Horace Lander and Jess Hamilton, two negroes of that place who are well known here.

Lander cut Hamilton's coat in several places in the back, but cut the flesh entirely across the stomach. He fell, and is thought to have come to the city.

The wounds of the victim are not serious.

SEVERAL CHANGES

New Faces in Local Dispatchers'

Office Illinois Central.

The Old Yards Used Only for

Gravel Trains—Other Railroad Notes.

There have been several changes in the local dispatchers' office at the Illinois Central railroad during the past few days.

Mr. J. B. Alvey, who resigned as dispatcher, last spring, is now one of the day dispatchers.

Mr. W. E. Richmond, formerly night bill clerk of the N. C. & St. L. is now night operator at the I. C. office, and Mr. J. E. Campbell, who succeeded Mr. Foster Robb, and has returned to Chicago.

Mr. F. R. O'Brien, of Louisville, is day operator, succeeded Mr. Robb, who was promoted to day operator, but has gone to Evansville to accept a position with the Postal Telegraph company.

Trainmaster J. J. Flynn and wife are expected back from Louisville today.

Mr. N. C. Harlan, of Kuttawa, is now night yard clerk here.

All freight trains now stop in the new yards, and the old yards have been abandoned except for gravel trains, all of which are made up in the old yards.

The work of rolling the Union depot shed has not yet progressed far.

The St. Louis train was delayed three hours yesterday afternoon by a disabled engine.

Work on the new Union depot is progressing as rapidly as could be expected. The depot is not going to be very large, but is going to be one of WEDNESDAY, DEC. 13, 1899.

When the Britons meet the Boers then comes the tug of war.

In every state where the Republic put the direct gold standard in the platform the vote of the party increased. The country wants this question settled distinctly and absolutely.

Kentucky will not be thoroughly cleaned of her political lepers until J. C. S. Blackburn has been buried forever and forever from sight. The weeds are full of willing post bearers.

Paris will open her exposition in April next. The first day of the month will be a very appropriate one. The suckers can then celebrate their natal day with a trip over the pond.

That great statesman from Owensboro, the Ransom of the national committee, will be in Frankfort tomorrow to make one more effort to seat Goebel and his gang. The trip will be in vain.

Mr. L. C. Starks, formerly of the Herald, Marshall county Star, and Mr. Clay G. Lemon, of the Paducah Leader, contemplate starting a new weekly paper at Benton by the first of the year. They have made no definite arrangements as yet, however.

The legislature will strengthen the Republican party and weaken the Democratic party if it takes up the proposed contest for governor. This may be accepted by the Democrats as gratuitous advice, but it is a fact the future will verify without doubt.

Among the members of the house of representatives are two brothers, Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, and T. D. Clayton, of New York. This is the first instance of two brothers serving in the same congress since George F. and E. Rockwood Hear, of Massachusetts, sat in the house of representatives in 1873.

The official returns of the election in South Dakota have just been published. In 1896 the state gave Bryan a narrow plurality of 183. In 1898 Lee, the fusion candidate for governor, was elected by a plurality of 870. In the election of Nov. 7, last, the Republicans elected their candidates by majorities ranging from 5,089 to 6,231.

A superstitious Democrat points out the fact that Jefferson was defeated in 1796 and elected in 1800. From this he reasons that Bryan will see history repeat itself and become president-elect next year. If the Democrats can find consolation in a parallel of that kind there is no reason for withholding it from them. But they are easily satisfied just now and anxious for straws of any kind.

The Sun today prints Gov. Taylor's inaugural address entire. It is a manly and strong paper and should be read by all. The promises it contains are like the man and his past record and will no doubt be read with much satisfaction by the general public. The allusions of the governor to the recent election will delight the patriots of the state, though they may throw the Goebellites into consternation.

Mr. John Melon, of Murray, and two other gentlemen of newspaper experience have bought material and are going to establish a new paper in Frankfort. It is expected to have the plant in shape to begin the proposed publication with the opening of the new year, and this will no doubt be the case. The paper is to be Democratic in politics and during the session of the legislature will be printed as a daily and at other times as a weekly. It goes without the saying that the new paper is to be Democratic and that it will be conducted with much vim and some vinegar.

The Leader a few days before the state canvassing board decided the result of the election about the time when the Goebellites thought the board would certainly count their Boss in whether elected or not—came out in a sensible article and said it matters not how the state election board may decide the question all good and honest citizens should and will abide the result as fair etc. But the decision was not according to the Leader's idea or wish and, presto! its opinion has since been only that the Democrats were defrauded out of the election even by the board of canvassers and that the ticket should appeal to the legislature for redress and the offices. When this is done—and it seems to be settled it will be done—and the legislature turns the gang down—the body will most certainly do, what will the Leader do then, poor thing, and what will its position be? It has been several times on the side of what was unjust, so it no doubt feels it can land most anywhere and exclaim, "We told you so." If inconsistency was a jewel the Leader would be a paste diamond as big as a grind stone.

Tomorrow the Democratic committee of the state are to gather in Frankfort, at the call of Chairman Blackburn, and obey the Boss's order to declare that the late state election should be contested before a partisan board. Will the committee so suitly their honor? Of course they will. Are they not children of the same iniquity which created the ticket?

Well they are. Will they win? Not this year nor the next. Why not? Because the honest people of the state—and they are still in control—will not let them. Then why all this fuss? The babies are only crying because they have once more lost their head on the public test, and the holidays are at hand and the blasts of winter upon them. It is sad as well as ridiculous as it not? Well, yes.

Elsewhere is printed ex-Governor Bradley's retiring address. Though not lengthy it was eloquent and a strong defense of his administration. The state's plaudit of well done goes with Mr. Bradley to his old home and to a retired life, while long life and prosperity is wished him.

The old sports on the Democ ticket who were beaten at their own game by the Republicans don't appear well in their baby act pleadings. They would appear better Kentucky, at least more to the manner born, if they would relinquish the "pot" with the usual grace.

It is now said that the report that Judge Pryor was about to resign, as a member of the state election board was only a gratuitous suggestion and one which will not be carried out. The object of the men who would thus sidetrack the judge after he has borne all the blint of the place and the abuse of those whose wish instead of the law he did not carry out has been recognized by the judge and he has, as his friends hope, decided to remain and see the gaug out in all of their questionable transactions. If this is the case those who have so roundly abused Messrs. Pryor and Ellis will regret the day they let their tongues run wild with their better judgment.

Gus Coulter, of Mayfield, it really seems is the only one of the Democratic ticket up to yesterday who had dared to contest the election of the opposing member of the Republican ticket. And his contest papers are really funny, indicating Coulter either has a wit or an ass for his attorney, though he claims to be some what of a lawyer himself. The petition contents there was raciality in every county which gave a Republican majority and none, of course, in any county which voted for the Goebel gang. It lays particular stress on the thin ballot subterfuge and the soldiers in Louisville, and for a pleading of the baby act is just the size of the fellow who makes it. It is said Coulter has been forced to make his kick by the demands of the score of fellows who thought they really had mortgages on the auditor's office under supposed contracts with the nominee.

STRONG AND MANLY

Was the Address Delivered By Gov. Taylor Yesterday.

Repeal of Goebel Law Urged and Economical and Progressive Administration Promised.

The inaugural address of Governor Taylor, delivered at Frankfort when inducted into office yesterday, was alike strong and manly and filled with satisfactory promises. The talk was well received, being often applauded in its delivery. The Sun gives the address entire as follows:

"In compliance with a time-honored custom, I appear before you to take the oath prescribed by the constitution, and to express my gratitude for the confidence reposed in me. It is not necessary for me to speak of those matters of administration, about which there is no special anxiety or fear. The verdict rendered on the 7th of last November was the mandate of the people of this commonwealth, in favor of civil liberty. It was the triumph of the people over a needless, remorseless, partisan machine, erected to enslave them. It had no political significance. Those who reject the rule of the majority and destroy the sanctity of the ballot box must, of necessity, fly to despotism and themselves are despots. An untrammelled ballot is the best basic principle of every righteous form of government; that government in which the people are permitted to participate and to have voice is the strongest on earth. It is the only one where every man at the call of his country would hasten to the defense of the flag. A jealous regard for the right of election by the people, acquiescence in the will of the majority, 'equal and exact justice' to all men and all political organizations, are the essential principles of government and constitute the sheet anchor of our peace and happiness.

"To confide to any partisan organization the entire mastery and control of elections is to invite and countenance political intolerance and tyranny. It is more, to the party so entrusted, it is a license for the commission of the most flagrant crimes and the stifling of the voice of the people, and inevitable result is anarchy or despotism.

"In spite of the monstrous election machine which sought to destroy the will of the citizens and bear them down by force of might, there comes from them the clear, emphatic demand for an immediate and unconditional repeal of the election law of 1898, and the restoration of civil liberties, and compliance with the constitutional demand that 'all elections shall be free and equal.'

"This, my fellow-citizens, is the vital issue of the hour. It overshadows all others, for without a free election and a fair count, it is worse than mockery to speak of settling other questions at the polls. Two hundred and fourteen thousand voters of Kentucky have been recorded against this odious law, and thousands of others were denied opportunity to enter their protest against it.

"I hope, fervently pray, that this mighty army of freemen may hold fast to integrity, and with unflinching fidelity continue to struggle until this measure is erased from the books of law. Let all other matters be subordinated to the consummation of this glorious end. From each battlefield and patriot grave in this broad land there comes a warning against the encroachment of threats of the destruction of Republican forms of government. Let us heed these admonitions ere it is too late.

"I believe implicitly in ultimate triumph of right. But there must be no cessation of effort in the struggle. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. Until the control of the ballot is taken from the domination of a partisan machine and restored to the people, a dreadful mean hangs over our homes; hence, in the language of the martyred Lincoln, 'With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in.'

"To this sacred cause I consecrate myself. There is little else to be said. So far as I may be able, I shall unflinchingly guard the interests of the taxpayers of the state against the extravagant or reckless use of the public revenues, and shall encourage the development of our material resources, and thereby inviting into our midst brain, brawn and capital from all sections of the country. In my humble way I hope to be able to assist in the advancement of the moral and educational interests of the commonwealth. With these ends in view I fervently invoke the guidance of the Divine Ruler, and beseech Christian men and women of Kentucky to aid me by their prayers."

Turning to Gov. Bradley, Mr. Taylor said:

"And now, sir, in assuming this high office, I am deeply sensible of how difficult it is to discharge its duties in such manner as to render me, in any degree, your worthy successor. During your administration the gravest responsibilities have come to you, and you have discharged them ably, fearlessly, always with best interests of the people and the honor of the state at heart. This the impartial historian of these times will record, and for this the people of Kentucky are under perpetual obligation, and their gratitude will henceforth attend you."

FISCAL COURT.

Judge Tully has called a meeting of fiscal court, composed of all the magistrates, for the 20th of this month, when settlement will be made with Sheriff Rogers and other business attended to.

Observationsat Random.

The new city ordinance relative to the health officer is designed to clip the wings of this soaring individual and make him a little more civil and civilized. He is required to do a great many things that in the past he has refused to do, claiming that the law did not require him to do it. One of these was to disinfect houses where contagion had been found. At last the council decided that if the law didn't require him to do certain things heretofore, it will now, and how he will take this daring attempt to curtail his liberty remains to be seen.

One of the oddest marriages that ever took place in Paducah will occur the day before or the day following Christmas. As yet no names can be disclosed, but the marriage will take place in a certain secret order hall. It will not be a "secret" marriage, but it will be in the hall of the lodge of which the groom-to-be is a member, and only the members of the fraternity will be present. The person who officiates will be a member of the order, so will the ushers, attendants and everybody else, and the bride will probably be the only woman present at this very unique and unprecedented marriage. The only object the couple have is novelty, and the members of the order have concurred in the plan unanimously. After the marriage there will be a banquet and here's hoping the bride won't feel lonesome with all those men.

"Well, are you ready to give it up?" asked one prominent citizen of another yesterday as he sauntered in with the air of a man who feels his superiority because he has won a bet, and comes to claim it.

"Give what up?" inquired the other, with well feigned innocence.

"Why, the money we bet on the election."

"Oh, yes, I remember. Taylor got it, didn't he?"

"Yes, that's what he did."

"Well, what was the bet?"

"You bet that Goebel would be governor."

"Well, give him time man, give him time. He's going to run again next election."

And the man hasn't surrendered the money yet, still claiming that as no time is specified, he can cling to the money until Goebel dies.

"You Kentuckians are getting a pretty nice name up throughout the country," remarked a Boston drummer at one of the hotels yesterday.

"With your election laws, your burnings, feuds and mountain assassinations, the fitful calling out of the militia, and these sort of things, I find in my unlimited peregrinations that a great many of the uninitiated are beginning to think that you are worse than the Texans ever hoped to be. Of course with me and others who know you, there are no such foolish ideas.

"I have no doubt that if one of your typical colonels should go to my town, Boston, and lay his pistol on the bar and proclaim the fact that he was from Kentucky and demand a drink, he could have all there was in the house—and the house too, if he didn't mind carrying it off."

The drummer left several Kentuckians in high glee and they are very glad that they will be able to attract more than the ordinary attention when they go away from home hereafter, and get all their drinks free, which is an item not to be scorned.

If a person visits the Illinois Central railroad yards here, he will find men busily engaged all over the yards loading old iron and worn rails on flat cars. The work has been in progress for several days, and the yard has been well stripped of an accumulation of this kind of rubbish that has been piling up for years.

The reason of this general cleaning up, however, is that the scrap iron is bringing more in the market than it cost originally. Master Mechanic Curley informed the writer that the old rails are bringing more than they cost originally—even more than the heavy steel rails cost.

Every railroad in the country is doing the same thing that the Illinois Central is, and when all this old iron is used up to fill the demand, and the demand is thereby reduced, the price will slump again. It is the best opportunity one will have to get rid of old iron in a long time, however, and should not be neglected.

"I don't know myself who are to be the police next year," remarked Mayor Lang with a smile when accosted by a reporter.

"I am quietly investigating," he continued with another significant smile, patting a paper he carried in his inside pocket. "I have here various charges, and I am looking into them the best I can. When I finish, I expect I'll know more about the next police force than I do now."

The appointments will not be made for a week yet.

BECOMING A MOTHER.

A Sure Way to Avoid Danger. Every true woman wants to be a mother. A baby is the dream of her life—the crowning glory of womanhood—true happiness can never be known without the blessings a child brings. Yet the ordeal through which all mothers must pass is so full of pain, anxiety and fear, that many a young life is sacrificed because of the inability to undergo the struggle of childbirth. It is not necessary to suffer in bringing new life into the world. By the use of "Mother's Friend," the suffering and danger can be avoided, and the hour robbed of its dread and pain. This remedy is praised by thousands who have tested it. Every woman is anxious to learn how to avoid the pain and suffering which may be in store for her. The little book, "Before Baby is Born," will be sent free to any address upon application to the Bradfield Regulator Co., Atlanta, Georgia.

GOVERNOR SANTA CLAUS' HEADQUARTERS

For real valuable and practical Xmas presents. There are, or should be, three objects with the giver of presents: 1st, should be to give something that would be of real practical service; 2nd, beauty and style; 3rd, an honest low price. In order to do this, then, it will require some investigation, and we invite you to come to our store and inspect the many practical things we have to show that will make just the kind of presents we have referred to. We suggest the following for the most suitable:

..Christmas Presents..

An OVERCOAT, a SUIT OF CLOTHES, a Pair of PANTS, a nice Shirt, a suit Underwear (for men or ladies), a nice pair of Suspenders, a pair Hose or Socks, a Hat or Cap, a dozen or half dozen up-to-date Collars, Nice Cuffs—plain or link, nice Cuff Buttons, a pair Fancy Garters, a nice Tie, a nice Dress Pattern, a nice Cape or Jacket, Night Shirts, a pair Gloves, a nice Corset, Fascinators, Handkerchiefs, Mufflers, Etc.

We would like to quote prices on all these articles, and would if our space would permit, but we assure you that the price we make on every article mentioned above will be AS LOW AS THE LOWEST, and possibly, by investigation you will find that OUR PRICES ARE THE LOWEST.

PELL, Observer.

The Reuben Dunbar, of the Ryman Line, which has been running under charter in the Evansville and Louisville trade left Louisville yesterday. He will arrive here tomorrow for Nashville. Captain Tom Ryman is in command.

The wharf today has undoubtedly been the busiest and liveliest part of the city. All the packets of the different lines of boats that have been laid up are shipping out their crews of men and the wheels of river commerce which were forced into retirement by the low water of many months are once more permitted to "spin" again. There are many river men who reside in Paducah that have been out of employment for a long time that have been called to duty and they didn't wait the second bid by considerable.

The Dick Fowler was brought over from the Illinois shore this morning, and is being put in readiness to start out for Cairo tomorrow morning in place of the J. B. Richardson which has been filling the Fowler's place for several months. The Richardson on return from Cairo will get ready to leave here tomorrow at noon for Nashville. Captain J. S. Tyler with his crew will arrive from Nashville to take charge of her.

The Joe Fowler, looking as handsome as a "sweet sixteen-year-old" was brought over from Illinois today, and she will leave for Evansville this evening on arrival of the Bob Dudley.

The John S. Hopkins leaves Evansville this afternoon, arriving here early tomorrow morning leaving on her return trip promptly at 10 a. m. The owners of the Hopkins have spent several thousand dollars on her since she laid up there last summer. Her many admirers will give her cordial welcome.

The H. W. Buttrifff has been released from charter by the Evansville and Paducah Packet Company.

The City of Paducah is advertised, to leave St. Louis next Friday for Tennessee river.

Captain Douglas Jones left last night for St. Louis where he will take command of the Res Lee which leaves St. Louis for Tennessee river next Saturday.

The J. M. Howell with a tow of cross ties arrived out of Tennessee river this morning.

The John L. Lowry leaves this evening for Tennessee river. She goes to Danville.

TACKY PARTY.

Miss Nellie Yopp, at the home of her father, Mr. A. Yopp, on Jackson street, last evening entertained her friends with a "tacky party." It was a delightful occasion to those present and Miss Yopp proved herself an affable hostess. NEW REVENUE REGULATION.

Revenue Stamps Must Be Multiplied By the User

Stamp Deputy W. J. White has received from headquarters some new rules and regulations relative to the cancellation of revenue stamps.

The new regulation, in addition to requiring the user to stamp the stamp with his initials and the date, must mutilate the said stamp by cutting three parallel marks running from not less than one fourth from the top to not less than one fourth of an inch from the bottom.

Such stamps are perforated by the user, such as those on checks, drafts, etc., the aforesaid mutilation need not be effected.

CUT A WOMAN.

John West, a negro well known in police circles, was arrested last night on a warrant charging him with cutting Hester Stovall near Ninth and Washington streets. Hester was not seriously injured, but this fact does not lessen Sam's chances to go to the penitentiary for it. He was held to answer and went to jail in a fault of bond.

CITY DISPENSARY

Dr. Lillard Sanders Preparing to Fix Things in Great Shape.

Will Keep Medicine at the City Hall to Give to the Poor.

City Physician Lillard Sanders is arranging for a public dispensary of medicines at the city hall. The dispensary will be regularly maintained in one of the offices, just which one is not decided, however, and he will keep regular office hours for the dispensation of medicine to the needy poor who call for it. This dispensary is to be maintained under the new ordinance requiring the city physician to dispense his own drugs, instead of issuing prescriptions to be filled at the drug stores.

The medicine will all be bought wholesale by the city, thus saving the retailer's profit, and when the city physician goes out to make city calls, he will always carry a case of drugs to give out instead of prescriptions.

It is thought the new plan will prove a great success. It is hoped to have the dispensary ready for business in a few days.

BAPTISING SUNDAY.

Thirty to Be Immersed at the Foot of Jefferson Street.

A two weeks' meeting at the Washington Street Baptist church, conducted by Rev. Hawkins, the pastor, assisted by Rev. B. J. Garrett, of Hopkinsville, has resulted in a large number of conversions, and Sunday afternoon there will be a notable baptism, in which thirty candidates will be immersed at the foot of Jefferson street.

Large crowds have heretofore attended these baptisms, and Sunday there will doubtless be an unusually large one present. There is a prospect of disruption among some of the brethren, however, over the fact that it is proposed to take up a collection on the river bank Sunday from all who are present.

There who object claim that it will be degrading a holy ordinance by making it a mere mercenary attraction to gather a crowd and the stickles.
